1. Q. What is the Table of Organization and Equipment of the engineer elements on the 2nd Gds Mechanized Division and on the 2nd and 9th Tank Divisions?
A. The 2nd Gds Mechanized Division and the 2nd and 9th Tank Divisions had engineering units but I do not know their organization.
2. Q. What are the engineer elements of the 590th Artillery Regiment?
A. As far as I know, the 590th Artillery Regiment had no engineering element.
3. Q. What is the Order of Battle of engineer units or elements in the Oranienburg and Strelitz areas?
A. I do not know the O/B of engineer units or elements in the Oranienburg and Strelitz areas.
4. Q. Please tell us all you know about the Neustrelitz Ammunition Depot, such as, quantities and types of ammunition stored there, description and number of bunkers, transportation and transportation repair facilities, any recent expansion, possible ammunition production facilities, etc.

the contents of the depot. I was told that there were artillery supplies, shells, mines, grenades and small arms ammunition. The shells stored there were 57mm, 85mm, 76mm, 100mm and others. The depot was very strictly guarded. There may have been other military supplies there but I do not know of them. The depot was used by the Germans before and during World War II. I have no other information.
